How to Stop Meddling and Start Truly Helping

How to Stop Meddling and Start Truly Helping

Devotional Verse

Proverbs 3:5-6

"Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight."

Bad Rule

"I must fix anything that's broken."

Focus on the Truth

"I must rely on my Redeemer."

Devotional Quote

"True grit is required to keep my mouth shut." ~Amy Carroll

Digging Deeper

1. When have you claimed to be helping when you were actually meddling?

2. In what situation do you really want to fix things right now?

3. What motivates you to help others (be honest)?

4. Think of the last time you blew it. How did God show you that it was going to be okay?

5. What are you trying to trust in the Lord for today?

Devotional Prayer

Lord, I long to fix every broken or potentially messy situation around me. I call it being helpful, but usually I'm just getting in your way. Thank you for continuing to look at me with love through all of my blunders and need for control. Amen.
