Pulling Together the Strings of Your Life Into a Beautiful Tapestry

Pulling Together the Strings of Your Life Into a Beautiful Tapestry

Devotional Verse

Isaiah 1:17

"Learn to do good; seek justice, correct oppression; bring justice to the fatherless, plead the widow's cause."

Devotional Quote

"I see this, and now I can't do nothing." ~Cindy Finley

Digging Deeper

1 Who has inspired you to "not do nothing"?

2. Who has God put on your heart who needs a bridge of hope to Jesus?

3. What holds you back from stepping out to help?

4. How has God used your life experiences to equip you to serve others?

5. How are you developing those gifts and being a good steward of them?

Grace Challenge

If you aren't using any of your gifts, what is one step you can take toward using one of them? Who might benefit from your skills or experiences?

Devotional Prayer

Heavenly Father, there is so much pain in the world that I find it overwhelming. The easiest thing for me to do is nothing—to let someone else do the hard things. But I know you call me to do my part in introducing hurting hearts to you. Show me my part and give me the courage and discipline to do it. Amen.
