Love & Limits: Raising Our Children to Know God
Through Our Parenting

Love & Limits:

Raising Our Children to Know God
Through Our Parenting

Discovery Verse

Psalm 78:4 (NIV)

"We will tell the next generation the praiseworthy deeds of the Lord, his power, and the wonders he has done.."

Grow Your Grit

Discipling our children is a hard but Jesus-filled approach to being parents.

Embrace God's Grace

We are given all the creativity and patience we need to parent our children well.

Discovery Quote

"I'm starting to have this conversation with my child where he is starting to understand that we're trying to help him grow and become a man that loves God."

~Erin McPherson

Digging Deeper

1. What is the difference between discipline and discipleship in my life specifically?

2. Am I hard on myself or loved ones when it comes to consequences?

3. Am I more concerned more about desire or obedience? Why?

4. What one change can I make today to honor “trying” vs. the “end result” with myself or child?

5. Press into conflict in connecting with grace...how could I do this with myself, spouse or child?

6. Today focusing on growth instead of assistance looks like...

Discovery Prayer

Dear Jesus,

I need so much grace to reparent myself in these areas. I ask you to bring these new concepts to mind and slowly replace old patterns that don't serve growth and relationship building. Guide me in how this looks in my home and family. Help me to understand you better through this lens of grace and relationship too! Amen
