Writing the Word

On Paper and On Your Heart

Discovery Verse

Luke 5:1-11

As the crowd was pressing in on Jesus to hear God's word,
He was standing by Lake Gennesaret.
He saw two boats at the edge of the lake;
the fishermen had left them and were washing their nets.
He got into one of the boats, which belonged to Simon,
and asked him to put out a little from the land.
Then He sat down and was teaching the crowds from the boat.
When He had finished speaking, He said to Simon,
"Put out into deep water and let down your nets for a catch . . ."
When they did this, they caught a great number of fish . . .
Then they brought the boats to land, left everything,
and followed Him.

Grow Your Grit

It may take time to linger in the word and therefore we may not even try.

Embrace God's Grace

The more we read God's word the more we know who He is, and studying scripture will always be worthwhile and bring connection we want so desperately.

"I know I've crossed the line when...the desire to impress replaces joy with stress." ~Denise Hughes

Digging Deeper

1. Is writing a struggle or a strength for me? What is my history with writing?

2. Using Denise's idea of the WHO, WHAT, WHY as a Book study, I will start some of these ideas in a book study of the Book of

3. Perfectionism is often a way to overcompensate for shame. Where am I falling in this trap?

4. If I put a WHY to spending more time with God in His word, what is my why right now?

Prayer

Oh Lord, I want to know you more. I confess I may need your help carving out the time or desire so please help me to want to read your word. Remind me I don't have to do it perfectly. Amen
